

implementation of the recommendations will be established speedily and an Advisory Board comprised of eminent persons from home and abroad will also be constituted to assist the Committee in its work.

The international community can best help by supporting the Myanmar Government in its efforts to bring stability, peace and development to Rakhine State.

Ministry of Foreign Affairs

Dated: 11 September 2017